Raastey Ghazals and Sitar by Ustad Shujaat Husain Khan

Shujaat Husain Khan is among the greatest North Indian classical musicians of our time. He belongs to the Imdad Khan gharana (tradition) of the sitar and is the seventh in the unbroken line from his family that has produced many musical masters, including his father, Ustad Vilayat Khan.

Shujaat is also known for his exceptional voice, which he uses for singing folk songs and poetry. We scanned the last three centuries of Urdu poetry to choose these unique ghazals for him.

Special thanks to Syed Zafar Hamdani for his support, who shares our passion of bringing people and cultures together.

This is an historic time for the Indo-Pak Sub Continent, when people are coming together after a half century of division and bitterness. Our aim is to enable and accelerate the process of unity by proliferating our common culture and values.
